RAMSHACKLE

By ELIZABETH REEDER

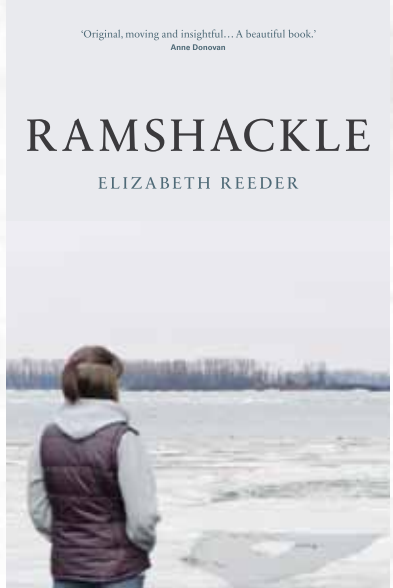

Thursday 26 April 6.30pm
Waterstones, Sauchiehall Street, Glasgow

Join us for the launch of Elizabeth Reeder's remarkable debut novel.

Roe is like any other fifteen year old suburban Chicago teenager. Her only worries are schoolwork, keeping up with her wayward best friend, and whether or not she should sleep with her boyfriend. Then her adoptive father, a locksmith, disappears one winter's day without explanation. As Roe tries to find out where he is and why he left, her past unravels, revealing secrets and lies that will change her future forever.

'Ramshackle is a hugely appealing and enjoyable novel. Original, moving and insightful, it is a rare combination of pace and narrative drive with lyrical poetry of language. A beautiful book.'

Anne Donovan, author of Buddha Da and Being Emily
